

SUSSEX COUNTY WINTER SUPER LEAGUE 2014/5

The Sussex County Winter Super League playoffs at the Roffey Club, Horsham on Sunday featured three competitions, with players from one team, Mid Sussex, collecting prize money from all three of these.

Tony Peters, Roffey Kings won the first event, the Pairs, when he partnered Aegir Bornsson to defeat the Worthing duo Dayle Smith and Richard Dixon by 3-1 in the final and collect the £100 prize money. Losing semi-finalists were Mark Harwood/ Dan Bradford, Mid Sussex and Worthing pair James Greenfield/ Lee Gladman.

The "Blue Riband" Singles Championship was won by Kevin Fishwick, Mid Sussex. In a close fought final, Kevin beat BD Oak's Ian Cooke by 3-1 to take the £100 cash prize. Losing semi-finalists were Aegir Bornsson and Don Rainsley, Newhaven.

In the final event of the day James Greenfield, competing in the Champion of Champions event, where the Super league season's man-of-the-match award winners were chasing a prize fund of £300, defeated Dave Harding, Lewes 3-1 to take the £150 first prize. The losing semi-finalists were the Mid Sussex players, Kevin Fishwick and Mark Harwood.

Twelve players shared the Competition prize fund of £690 and more than £2800 was distributed to the fifteen teams in the League.
